If the shipment moves between two ports by carrier by water, the law requires that the bill of lading shall state whether it is consigned to the shipper or the consignee. If the bill of lading is consigned to the shipper, the shipper is required to state specifically in writing the agreed or declared value of the property.

The agreed or declared value of the property is hereby specifically stated by the shipper to be not exceeding $100,000.00. The shipper and carrier agree that claims for loss or damage by Shipper must be filed within one (1) year after the delivery of the property (the date of the bill of lading or the date of the bill of lading, if the property is delivered to the consignee, except that claims for failure to make delivery must be filed within one (1) year after reasonable time for delivery of the property, if the property is not delivered to the consignee). The shipper shall have the right to offset the amount of any claim against the amount of any claim waived any and all lien(s) on property of Shipper.

Trailer Inspected The fiber boxes used for this shipment conform to the specifications of the Consolidated Freight Classifications.
